BEATS SPARKLING STAR. A LONG

More than 25,000 persons took advantage of the perfect weather to visit Belmont Park yesterday afternoon, where some excellent racing was seen, although the books got the of the money from the defeat of six The path along the outer rail favorites. had been plowed up in the morning, and as it had not been harrowed the jockeys were selled to confine their mounts to the middle of the course. This fact, coupled with the soft condition of the track, was the means of making public form a delusion and a spare, although several real good things went through successfully.

The loading feature was the Toboggan Bandjeap, for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs, straightaway. A good field of sprinters went to the post, with James R. Keene's Israelite a lukewarm favorite at fours But Dave Johnson's Roseben, 8 to i, a sessoned campaigner, made all the running and won under a heavy drive by a neck in 1:13. R. T. to have a chance when half the distance had been covered, finished a half a length out of the money. The others were outrun from the raising of the barrier.

The finish in the Bouquet Stakes for two-yoear-ids, five furiongs, straightaway, was sensational in the extreme. It was not until the last jump that Baird got W. H. Snyder's Anodyne, eto 1, up in time togwin by six inches from R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Gallavant, 3 to 1, who was the pacemaker from the start. The latter apparently fouled Leonard Joe Hayman, who closed an equal favorite with the Wilson entry, at the last furiong pole, but there was no protest from Miller who rode Hayman and took third money, a half a length back. The time was 1.01.

E. E. Smathers's frene Lindsay, 9 to 2, third choice, outsprinted the others in the handicap, six furiongs straightaway, and was a handy winner by a length and half from Sydney Paget's Cairngorm, 17 to 10 favorite. Flyback, second choice, was four lengths away. The race was run in 1714.

Mr. Paget's colors were carried to victory by a small margin in the second race, for two-year-olds, four and a half furiongs straightaway, by Andria, 4 to 1, who staggered home a nose in front of John E. Madden's Comediene, 7 to 3 favorite. The latter closed swiftly in the final sixteenth and had five lengths over Stalactical, a 25 to 1 shot. The time was 0.55 1-5.

The steeplechase, at about-two miles, was a farce. Six out of eleven starters, including Sandhurst, the favorite, fell, while Decimo refused early in the game. Mr. Major's Flying Virginian, backed down to threes, went over the jumps nicely and romped home with twenty lengths to spare. H. S. Page rode Ivan, 10 to 1, into second money, with Melbourne Eclipse, 6 to 1, half a dozen lengths back. The time was 4:06.

Ms a final crushing blow to the talent, Palette, a 30 to 1 shot, showed her heels to a fair lot of platers in the last race, at a mile, and standing a drive, sot the money by half a length in 1:42. Wizard, 7 to 1, closed with a rush and nailed the place from Lord Bad

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK Dave Johnson Wins $8,000 on the Victory of Roseben.

Dave Johnson came within an ace of allowng his horse Roseben to win the Toboggan Handicap yesterday unbacked. Up to that event the noted plunger had lost $5,300 on the first three races, and when he inspected Rose-ben in the paddock he was not inclined to egard him with favor. Even when Trainer seben had a royal chance to win the lunger was reluctant about making a bet, out when Tom Welsh backed up Oxx and 'Neill with a similar opinion Johnson weakened. The horses were on the way to the post then and Johnson hurried into the ring, marking to some friends: It would be pretty rough on me if Roseben

So he bustled up to Max Blumenthal, the sookmaker who had 10 to 1 against Roseben uld win after all!" on his slate, and said:

as he called to his sheet writer:

"Eight thousand to 800, Roseben, for Dave Johnson!"

Then Roseben won and Johnson hunted up Oxx, O'Neill and Weish to commend them for their excellent judgment. Johnson lost $2,500 on Cairngorm in the first race and another big bet on Comedienne, a filly by Plaudit—Maxine Elliott, who ran in John E. Madden s colors, in the second.

Jesse Lewisohn put a solid wager on Flyback in the first race, but soon hedged on a commission on Irene Lindsoy. E. R. Thomas the commission on Irene Lindsoy. E. R. Soi dropped $1,700 to the race, however, which to him was a mere bagatelle.

Eole Pearsall, the bookmaker, fancied Sparkling Star in the Toboggan Handicap, and when the layer who had the adjoining stool put up $0, 10 and $5. Eole bet him $50 each way. Lightensteh and Wheelock played Gallavant, who was beaten a nose by Anodyne, while Wheelock had a large wager on Roseben at 8 to 1.

John E. Madden has secured first call on the services of Jockey Harry Baird.

Previous winners of the Toboggan Handicap were Fides, Fitzlames, Madstone, Prince (icorge, Correction, Bastings, Octagon (twice), Banastar (twice), Voter, Oid England, Mizzen and Hurst Park. One victory out of six games was the sorry showing of the New York Americans last week. BOSTON, May 6.—A crowd of nearly 20,000 went wild with joy this afternoon when the Champions put it on the New York team once more. The game was handed to the locals in the sixth inning, when errors by Yeager and Griffith, a two base hit, a base on balls and Ferris's lucky two bagger nested the locals four runs. Two wild pitches brought Ferris from second to the plate with the fifth run and then the visitors decided that it was all over. The condition of Griffith's pitching staff was again apparent today. Chesbro started the game and allowed but one safe hit during the four innings he was on the rubber. Then his arm gave out and Griffith took his place in the fifth. Freeman started things by hitting into the crowd at right field for three bases. The ball appeared to have gone over the fence, but Connolly thought differently. Grimshaw hit to Chase and Freeman was safe at the plate with Boston's first run, tying the score.

In the sixth Burkett's grounder went through Yeager. Then Parent bunted toward first and Griffith fumbled, the runner being safe. Collins drove a double to center field, scoring Parent. Freeman walked, filling the bases. Grimshaw fanned, but Ferris slammed one down the third base foul line that was good for two sacks and scored Stahl, Collins and Freeman, the latter being assisted home through Dougherty's desire to hold on to the ball. There was a hot wrangle with Connolly over Ferris's drive. Griffith declared it was a foul, but the umpire stuck to his decision, Griffith then brought Ferris home with two wild pitches. The score:

A curious feature of the matter is that articles of incorporation of the Western A.

It is evident that the Britts are after a permit and want to get all the money out of the match that they can. EASY FOR RED AND BLUE.

HILL SCHOOLBOYS WIN. Protest by Mercersburg Loses the Yale Cup for That Academy.

New Haven, May 6.—The Yale inter-scholastic track meet was won this after-noon on the Yale field by the Hill Preparatory School, finishing half a point ahead of the Worcester Academy team. Riuley of the Mercersburg Academy broke the inter-scholastic record for the broad jump by 11/2 inches, his jump to-day being 22 feet 8 inches. One record was equalled by Capt. Mayhew of Worcester in the 220 hurdles. He captured 13 points for his team. scored by each team were as follows: Hill School, 25: Worcester Academy, 24%; Mercersburg, 20; Lawrenceville, 18½; St. Paul's 14: Haverford, 16; Mount Pleasant Academy, 5: Friends' Central, 4; Montclair, 4; Dwight School, 2; Manchester High, 1; Banlas Business College, 2; Brookline Academy, 1.

Mercersburg Academy had the meet won on points, but protested Shepard of the Brown Pren school. It was found that Shepard was over the age limit of 21 years. He not only won the mile and half mile, but smashed the records in each event, being the star performer of the day. His disqualification' caused a rearrangement of points, which lost the meet to Mercersburg. As the school had won the meet three times the victory to-day would have given to it the Yale interscholastic cup. scored by each team were as follows: Hill

YALE BEATEN BY NAVY CREW. Annapolis Oarsmen Score Their Third

Important Victory This Sesson. ANNAPOLIS, May 6 .- The Annapolis midshipmen, who have already defeated Penn-sylvania and Georgetown this season, won from the Yale college crew in a splendid race this afternoon, leading by a length and a quarter in a two mile race. The winning time was 11 minutes $4 seconds, against a strong head wind. Yale's time was 11 min-strong head wind. Yale's time was 11 minutes 58 seconds.

The start to-day was made with great difficulty on account of the strong wind, but the boats got away evenly. For half a mile there was no advantage, but then it was thought that Annapolis was forging ahead. At the mile the nose of the navy boat was a third of a length to the good, and from that point Annapolis steadily forged ahead. Yale increased its stroke from 32 to 36 in the last quarter of a mile, but Annapolis readily responded and the lead was not cut down.
